THE NSFAS DIGITAL LEARNING DEVICE PROGRAMME OFFICIAL LAUNCH

The Higher Education, Science and Innovation Minister Dr. Blade Nzimande will officially debut the National Student Financial Aid Scheme's (NSFAS') Digital Learning Device programme through a media launch to be held at the South Cape TVET College, George Campus.

This launch marks the roll-out plan on the distribution of laptops to NSFAS funded students both at Universities and Colleges. During this launch, Minister Nzimande will handover laptop devices to the returning students in NCVL4/ L3 & L2 whose names were confirmed by the College.

The NSFAS Digital Learning Device Programme is an initiative by Government through the Department of Higher Education and Training, implemented via NSFAS, to aid students as they navigate through online learning resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Members of the media are invited as follows:

Date: Friday, June 11, 2021

Time: 11h30

Venue: 46 Hibernia Street, George, Western Cape (South Cape TVET College)
