Executive Summary

The National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS) is a statutory body providing financial aid to eligible students who wish to study at public universities and Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) colleges. NSFAS is mandated to manage and distribute funds in accordance with the provisions of the NSFAS Act (Act 56 of 1999).

Fraud and Corruption

All providers are to take note of the implications of contravening the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, Act No 12 of 2004 and any other Act applicable.

Clarifications / Additional information / Rights / Appeals

Clarification

Any clarification required by a bidder regarding the meaning or interpretation of the TOR, or any other aspect concerning the bid, are to be requested in writing by email from scm@nsfas.org.za. The bid number should be mentioned in all correspondence. Telephonic requests for clarification will not be accepted. If appropriate, the clarifying information will be made available to all bidders by e-mail only.

Additional Information

During the evaluation of the bids, additional information may be requested in writing from bidders, for clarity. Replies to such requests must be submitted, within 5 (five) working days from the date of request, or as otherwise indicated. Failure to comply, may lead to your bid being disregarded.

Rights

NSFAS reserves the right to appoint more than one (1) service provider. NSFAS further reserves the right to engage with the short-listed bidders for price negotiation and a site inspection where necessary. NSFAS in addition reserves the right to invite the shortlisted for a presentation as part of the bid process. NSFAS reserves the right to not select the lowest price. In addition, NSFAS reserves the right to consider the performance of bidders in past contracts/services delivered to NSFAS in the determination of the award outcome. NSFAS reserves the right to award the contract in whole or in parts.

Appeals

The unsuccessful bidder (s) has a period of fourteen (14) working days following the date of the letter of regret to formally lodge an appeal. The appeal should include the reasons of the appeal, the way in which the bidder's rights have been affected, and how the bidder would like the matter to be fixed. All formal appeals should be forwarded to scm@nsfas.org.za

Consent

By responding to this tender, both the entity and its directors provide consent to NSFAS to perform background checks which would include amongst others, the relevant Transunion checks.

Submitting Bids

One (1) original and one (1) hard copy, i.e. two documents must be handed in/delivered to:

The deposit box situated at:
1st Floor, House Vincent
Brodie Road
Wynberg
7801

Tenders can be delivered and deposited into the tender box between 08:30 and 17:00, Mondays to Fridays and, prior to the closing date, and between 08:30 and 11:00 on the closing date.

No faxed or e-mailed quotations will be accepted. All tenders must be submitted on the official forms (not to be re typed).

Only bids that are submitted as one (1) original and one (1) copy will be accepted as valid and responsive.

The original and copies will be distributed to the bid evaluation committee and must contain the same information; and must all be neatly marked and professionally presented. All bid documents should be referenced.

Respondents should ensure that tender documents are delivered to NSFAS before the closing date and time to the correct physical address. If the tender document is late, it will not be accepted and will be disregarded.

Any tender submitted shall remain valid, irrevocable and open for written acceptance by NSFAS for a period of 120 (one hundred and twenty) days. A tender submitted shall further be deemed to remain valid after the expiry of the above mentioned 120-day period until formal acceptance by NSFAS, unless NSFAS is notified in writing by the tenderer of anything to the contrary (including any further conditions the tender may introduce). Any further conditions that the tenderer may introduce will be considered at the sole discretion of NSFAS.

Bidders must indicate on the cover of each document whether it is the original or a copy. Copies must be numbered, e.g. Copy 1. Bids should be submitted in a sealed envelope, marked with:

- Bid number SCMN007/2020
- Closing date and time 18 September 2020 at 11:00
- The name and address of the bidder

Documents submitted on time by bidders shall not be returned.

LATE BIDS

Bids received late will not be considered for evaluation purposes. A bid will be considered late if it arrived even one second after 11:00 am or any time thereafter. The tender (bid) box shall be locked at exactly 11:00 am and bids arriving late will not be considered under any circumstances. Bidders are therefore strongly advised to ensure that bids be dispatched allowing enough time for any unforeseen events that may delay the delivery of the bid.

Bids sent to the NSFAS via courier shall be deemed to be received at the date and time of arrival at the NSFAS premises (tender/bid box or reception). Bids received at the physical address after the closing date and time of the bid, shall therefore be deemed to be received late. Bidders should allow time to access the premises due to security arrangements that need to be observed.

Response Structure:

The contents of the BID/TENDER document must be as follows, and numbering below, with each schedule punched, placed in a file and separated from the next schedule with a file divider.

Please complete the checklist below to verify your submission of the relevant documents:

Schedules	Description	Submitted (tick box below):
		Yes	No
Schedule 1	Entity registration documentation
Schedule 2	Consent by the entity and its directors to perform the necessary background checks which includes amongst others, the TransUnion checks.
Schedule 3	Original Valid Tax Clearance Certificate/tax pin
Schedule 4	BBB-EE Certificate / or BBSEE Sworn Affidavit for EME/QSE signed by Commissioner of Oaths
Schedule 5	National Treasury Central Supplier Database proof of registration (Mandatory requirement)
Schedule 6	Letter from Bank confirming banking details (not older than 3 months from date of closing date of tender)

Schedules	Description	Submitted (tick box below):
		Yes	No
Schedule 7	Completed and signed Tender Documents: including the following; SBD 1 SBD 3 SBD 4 SBD 6.1 SDB 6.2 (where applicable) SBD 8 SBD 9 General Conditions of Contracts (with every page initiated)
Schedule 7	Detailed Bid proposal in response to bid specification requirements

Contract Negotiations

The successful bidder (s) will be required to enter into a written contract/SLA with NSFAS. The final terms and conditions will be negotiated between NSFAS and the successful bidders (s). Should the awarded bidder fail to sign the SLA within a reasonable timeframe deemed by NSFAS, NSFAS reserves the right to cancel the award/contract and award the tender to the 2nd placed bidder.

The GENERAL CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT (GCC) will form the basis of the contract; however, NSFAS reserves its rights to impose additional terms and conditions at its sole discretion. General Conditions of Contract are obtainable from www.nsfas.org.za. The General Conditions of Contract must be accepted.

Payments

NSFAS will pay the successful bidder (s) the fees set out in the final contract according to the table of deliverables. No additional amounts will be payable by NSFAS to the successful bidder (s).

The successful bidder (s) shall invoice NSFAS for the services rendered in a reasonable timeframe. The invoices billed to NSFAS must be in relation to the original scope of work/terms of reference.

The invoice must be accompanied by supporting source document(s) containing detailed information, as NSFAS may reasonably require, for the purposes of establishing the specific nature, extent and quality of the services which were undertaken by the successful bidder (s).

No payment will be made to the successful bidder (s) unless an original tax invoice complying with section 20 of the VAT Act, 1991 (Act No 89 of 1991), as amended, has been submitted to NSFAS.

Payment shall be made by bank transfer into the successful bidder (s) back account normally 30 days after receipt of an acceptable, original, valid tax invoice. Money will only be transferred into a South African bank account. (Banking details on a bank letterhead must be submitted as soon as the bid is awarded).

Payments will only be made to the bidder in accordance with the purchase order issued to the awarded bidder. Any services delivered by the bidder outside of the original bid specifications and over and above the purchase order value will not be paid for as NSFAS is not liable for these payments. Should the service provider perform any additional work outside of the tender award and its requirements, NSFAS will not be held liable for such payment to the service provider.

1. Purpose

1. NSFAS requires the services of a suitable service provider that specialises in the verification, validation of income earned by the applicant parents/guardian/spouse, and assessment of applicant information that may be provided. Income earned must cover formal employment income, informal employment income where recorded, as well as investment income. NSFAS will provide the service providers with the key applicant information which includes the ID numbers of the applicant and the parents/guardian, following which the service providers would be required to provide to NSFAS the following information per applicant and parents/guardian or spouse:

- 1.1.1 Verification and validation of the actual monthly/annual income (provisional estimates of income will need to be assessed for those employed in the informal sector or self-employed) of the applicant and parents/guardian/spouse.
- 1.1.2 The sources of information utilised, the assumptions applied, and the model that is used to estimate the monthly/annual income for the parents/guardians/spouse.

2 Background

- 2.1 NSFAS is mandated to provide financial assistance to eligible students at Public Universities and at Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) colleges throughout South Africa with its head office based in Wynberg, Cape Town.
- 2.2 In order to assess the eligibility of applicants, the NSFAS needs to verify the combined household income details (parents/guardians/spouse) which will be provided by the applicants on their applications

3 Mandatory requirements

All bids must comply with the mandatory requirements and failure to comply with any of these requirements will disqualify the bid.

FOR EASE OF EVALUATION BIDDERS ARE ENCOURAGED TO REFERENCE THEIR BID SUBMISSIONS.

COMPANY ACCREDITATION NATIONAL CREDIT REGULATOR	Comply	Not Comply	Reference
3.1 The bidder must be accredited by the National Credit Regulator (NCR). The bidder must submit proof of a valid (NCR) certificate at the time of the closing date of the bid advertisement.
COMPANY ACCREDITATION CREDIT BUREAU ASSOCIATION	Comply	Not Comply	Reference
3.2 The bidder must be a member of the Credit Bureau Association (CBU). The bidder must submit proof of a valid (CBU) Certificate at the time of the closing date of the bid advertisement which NSFAS will validate.
A CONFIRMATION LETTER	Comply	Not Comply	Reference
3.3 The bidder must submit the required information (verification of 100 000 batches) to NSFAS within 72 hours of the request. A confirmation letter is required to confirm this on the company letterhead in this regard.
Online-Integration
3.4 The service provider is required to supply a web base real time (99% uptime calculated over a 30 day period) portal and web services (a standard Web service interface must be provided e.g. REST or SOAP API's) with the ability to also complete bulk service requests with FTP as secondary backup. The bidder must confirm this in writing on their respective letter head.
RECORD CONTROL
3.5 The bidder must provide confirmation of how up to date their records (source information and data) are. The bidder must confirm in writing on their respective letter head the date the source data was last updated and how often these updates are performed.

4 Functional Specification

- 4.1. The bidder is required to provide a detailed methodology on how they will validate income received by the applicant/parents/guardian/spouse, and the assumptions that will be applied in the validation and verification of the information that will be required by NSFAS as stipulated in the Purpose section above, together with the output/report format details, taking into account Protection of Personal Information Act (Act 4 of 13) (POPI) guidelines.
- 4.2. The bidder is required to demonstrate their ability to handle large volumes of requests, as total applications to be verified and validated is estimated at 700 000 (each application includes the verification of income of applicant/parents/guardian/spouse), of which these will be sent in batches of 100 000 by NSFAS during the NSFAS period of applications.
- 4.3. The bidder is required to provide the details of the method of transferring - the verification and validation results to NSFAS, which must be done through a Web portal real time access portal as the primary means of access data and a secure FTP as secondary method of obtaining information, so as to ensure information security compliance (minimum information security standards (MISS)). The service provider must allow NSFAS to independently assess the security platform to gain assurance on MISS.
- 4.4. The bidder is required to send to NSFAS bi-weekly progress batch reporting (i.e. data sent, data received, successful data and rejected date) and must include information received from NSFAS, all information regarding verified and validated, all information that still has to be verified and validated, and any exceptions/troubleshooting experienced.
- 4.5. The bidder will be required to process data real-time as submitted by NSFAS in line with the functional requirement 3.4 and to ensure a maximum turnaround time of no longer than 72hrs processing time.
- 4.6. The service provider must be able to supply a web based real time portal with the ability to also complete bulk service requests.
- 4.7. The bidder must communicate to NSFAS 48hrs before, for planned maintenance downtime and preferably they should be outside business hours.
- 4.8. The bidder must immediately alert NSFAS of any unplanned downtime and ensure services are restored within 30 minutes during business hours and within 2hrs after business hours.
- 4.9. The bidder must ensure immediate response in suspected security breaches and remediation action with 4hrs of reported cases.

- 4.10. The bidder must share detailed release documentations for any new system changes that NSFAS needs to be aware of.
- 4.11. The bidder must ensure any structural changes to their real-time service request/response are backward compatible.
- 4.12. The bidder must ensure 2000 msec maximum response time for real time calls.
- 4.13. At the end of the project, the bidder must provide a project close out report to NSFAS which summarises the activities undertaken, deliverables achieved, as well as include a formal handover with all documentation generated, knowledge transfer of lessons learnt, and any gaps resolved.

5 Contract Period

The contract period is for a period of 24 months, however NSFAS reserves the right to cancel the contract after 12 months.

6 Pricing Schedule

6.1 The price submitted must be for the total contract period of 24 months and inclusive of VAT and disbursements.

8 Preference Point System

All proposals that will achieve the minimum qualifying score (acceptable tenders) will be evaluated further in terms of the preference point system as follows: A maximum of 80 points is allocated for price on the following basis:

80/20

Where

P_s = Points scored for comparative price of proposal under consideration

P_t = Comparative price of bid under consideration

P_{min} = Comparative price of lowest acceptable proposal

General Conditions of Contract

1. Definitions

1. The following terms shall be interpreted as indicated:
 - 1.1 “Closing time” means the date and hour specified in the bidding documents for the receipt of bids.
 - 1.2 “Contract” means the written agreement entered into between the purchaser and the supplier, as recorded in the contract form signed by the parties, including all attachments and appendices thereto and all documents incorporated by reference therein.
 - 1.3 “Contract price” means the price payable to the supplier under the contract for the full and proper performance of his contractual obligations.
 - 1.4 “Corrupt practice” means the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution.
 - 1.5 "Countervailing duties" are imposed in cases where an enterprise abroad is subsidized by its government and encouraged to market its products internationally.
 - 1.6 “Country of origin” means the place where the goods were mined, grown or produced or from which the services are supplied. Goods are produced when, through manufacturing, processing or substantial and major assembly of components, a commercially recognized new product results that is substantially different in basic characteristics or in purpose or utility from its components.
 - 1.7 “Day” means calendar day.
 - 1.8 “Delivery” means delivery in compliance of the conditions of the contract or order.
 - 1.9 “Delivery ex stock” means immediate delivery directly from stock actually on hand.
 - 1.10 “Delivery into consignees store or to his site” means delivered and unloaded in the specified store or depot or on the specified site in compliance with the conditions of the contract or order, the supplier bearing all risks and charges involved until the supplies are so delivered and a valid receipt is obtained.
 - 1.11 "Dumping" occurs when a private enterprise abroad market its goods on own initiative in the RSA at lower prices than that of the country of origin and which have the potential to harm the local industries in the RSA.
 - 1.12 " Force majeure" means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the supplier's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but is not restricted to, acts of the purchaser in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes.

- 1.13 “Fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of any bidder and includes collusive practice among bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the bidder of the benefits of free and open competition.
- 1.14 “GCC” means the General Conditions of Contract.
- 1.15 “Goods” means all of the equipment, machinery, and/or other materials that the supplier is required to supply to the purchaser under the contract.
- 1.16 “Imported content” means that portion of the bidding price represented by the cost of components, parts or materials which have been or are still to be imported (whether by the supplier or his subcontractors) and which costs are inclusive of the costs abroad, plus freight and other direct importation costs such as landing costs, dock dues, import duty, sales duty or other similar tax or duty at the South African place of entry as well as transportation and handling charges to the factory in the Republic where the supplies covered by the bid will be manufactured.
- 1.17 “Local content” means that portion of the bidding price which is not included in the imported content provided that local manufacture does take place.
- 1.18 “Manufacture” means the production of products in a factory using labour, materials, components and machinery and includes other related value-adding activities.
- 1.19 “Order” means an official written order issued for the supply of goods or works or the rendering of a service.
- 1.20 “Project site,” where applicable, means the place indicated in bidding documents.
- 1.21 “Purchaser” means the organization purchasing the goods.
- 1.22 “Republic” means the Republic of South Africa.
- 1.23 “SCC” means the Special Conditions of Contract.
- 1.24 “Services” means those functional services ancillaries to the supply of the goods, such as transportation and any other incidental services, such as installation, commissioning, provision of technical assistance, training, catering, gardening, security, maintenance and other such obligations of the supplier covered under the contract.
- 1.25 “Written” or “in writing” means handwritten in ink or any form of electronic or mechanical writing.

2. Application

- 2.1 These general conditions are applicable to all bids, contracts and orders including bids for functional and professional services, sales, hiring, letting and the granting or acquiring of rights, but excluding immovable property, unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents.
- 2.2 Where applicable, special conditions of contract are also laid down to cover specific supplies, services or works.
- 2.3 Where such special conditions of contract are in conflict with these general conditions, the special conditions shall apply.

3 General

- 3.1 Unless otherwise indicated in the bidding documents, the purchaser shall not be liable for any expense incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid. Where applicable a non-refundable fee for documents may be charged.
- 3.2 With certain exceptions, invitations to bid are only published in the Government Tender Bulletin. The Government Tender Bulletin may be obtained directly from the Government Printer, Private Bag X85, Pretoria 0001, or accessed electronically from www.treasury.gov.za

4. Standards

- 4.1 The goods supplied shall conform to the standards mentioned in the bidding documents and specifications.

5. Use of contract documents and information; inspection.

- 5.1 The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, disclose the contract, or any provision thereof, or any specification, plan, drawing, pattern, sample, or information furnished by or on behalf of the purchaser in connection therewith, to any person other than a person employed by the supplier in the performance of the contract. Disclosure to any such employed person shall be made in confidence and shall extend only so far as may be necessary for purposes of such performance.
- 5.2 The supplier shall not, without the purchaser's prior written consent, make use of any document or information mentioned in GCC clause 5.1 except for purposes of performing the contract.

- 5.3 Any document, other than the contract itself mentioned in GCC clause 5.1 shall remain the property of the purchaser and shall be returned (all copies) to the purchaser on completion of the supplier's performance under the contract if so, required by the purchaser.
- 5.4 The supplier shall permit the purchaser to inspect the supplier's records relating to the performance of the supplier and to have them audited by auditors appointed by the purchaser, if so, required by the purchaser.

6. Patent rights

- 6.1 The supplier shall indemnify the purchaser against all third-party claims of infringement of patent, trademark, or industrial design rights arising from use of the goods or any part thereof by the purchaser.

7. Performance security

- 7.1 Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notification of contract award, the successful bidder shall furnish to the purchaser the performance security of the amount specified in SCC.
- 7.2 The proceeds of the performance security shall be payable to the purchaser as compensation for any loss resulting from the supplier's failure to complete his obligations under the contract.
- 7.3 The performance security shall be denominated in the currency of the contract, or in a freely convertible currency acceptable to the purchaser and shall be in one of the following forms:
- (a) a bank guarantee or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a reputable bank located in the purchaser's country or abroad, acceptable to the purchaser, in the form provided in the bidding documents or another form acceptable to the purchaser; or
 - (b) a cashier's or certified cheque
- 7.4 The performance security will be discharged by the purchaser and returned to the supplier not later than thirty (30) days following the date of completion of the supplier's performance obligations under the contract, including any warranty obligations, unless otherwise specified in SCC.

8. Inspections, tests and analyses

- 8.1 All pre-bidding testing will be for the account of the bidder.
- 8.2 If it is a bid condition that supplies to be produced or services to be rendered should at any stage during production or execution or on completion be subject to inspection, the premises of the bidder or contractor shall be open, at all reasonable hours, for inspection by a representative of the Department or an organization acting on behalf of the Department.

- 8.3 If there are no inspection requirements indicated in the bidding documents and no mention is made in the contract, but during the contract period it is decided that inspections shall be carried out, the purchaser shall itself make the necessary arrangements, including payment arrangements with the testing authority concerned.
- 8.4 If the inspections, tests and analyses referred to in clauses 8.2 and 8.3 show the supplies to be in accordance with the contract requirements, the cost of the inspections, tests and analyses shall be defrayed by the purchaser.
- 8.5 Where the supplies or services referred to in clauses 8.2 and 8.3 do not comply with the contract requirements, irrespective of whether such supplies or services are accepted or not, the cost in connection with these inspections, tests or analyses shall be defrayed by the supplier.
- 8.6 Supplies and services which are referred to in clauses 8.2 and 8.3 and which do not comply with the contract requirements may be rejected.
- 8.7 Any contract supplies may on or after delivery be inspected, tested or analysed and may be rejected if found not to comply with the requirements of the contract. Such rejected supplies shall be held at the cost and risk of the supplier who shall, when called upon, remove them immediately at his own cost and forthwith substitute them with supplies which do comply with the requirements of the contract. Failing such removal, the rejected supplies shall be returned at the supplier's cost and risk. Should the supplier fail to provide the substitute supplies forthwith, the purchaser may, without giving the supplier further opportunity to substitute the rejected supplies, purchase such supplies as may be necessary at the expense of the supplier.
- 8.8 The provisions of clauses 8.4 to 8.7 shall not prejudice the right of the purchaser to cancel the contract on account of a breach of the conditions thereof, or to act in terms of Clause 23 of GCC.

9. Packing

- 9.1 The supplier shall provide such packing of the goods as is required to prevent their damage or deterioration during transit to their final destination, as indicated in the contract. The packing shall be sufficient to withstand, without limitation, rough handling during transit and exposure to extreme temperatures, salt and precipitation during transit, and open storage. Packing, case size and weights shall take into consideration, where appropriate, the remoteness of the goods' final destination and the absence of heavy handling facilities at all points in transit.

9.2 The packing, marking, and documentation within and outside the packages shall comply strictly with such special requirements as shall be expressly provided for in the contract, including additional requirements, if any, specified in SCC, and in any subsequent instructions ordered by the purchaser.

10. Delivery and documents

- 10.1 Delivery of the goods shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the terms specified in the contract. The details of shipping and/or other documents to be furnished by the supplier are specified in SCC.
- 10.2 Documents to be submitted by the supplier are specified in SCC.

11. Insurance

- 11.1 The goods supplied under the contract shall be fully insured in a freely convertible currency against loss or damage incidental to manufacture or acquisition, transportation, storage and delivery in the manner specified in the SCC.

12. Transportation

- 12.1 Should a price other than an all-inclusive delivered price be required, this shall be specified in the SCC.

13. Incidental services

- 13.1 The supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following services, including additional services, if any, specified in SCC:
- (a) performance or supervision of on-site assembly and/or commissioning of the supplied goods;
 - (b) furnishing of tools required for assembly and/or maintenance of the supplied goods;
 - (c) furnishing of a detailed operations and maintenance manual for each appropriate unit of the supplied goods;
 - (d) performance or supervision or maintenance and/or repair of the supplied goods, for a period of time agreed by the parties, provided that this service shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under this contract; and

- (e) training of the purchaser's personnel, at the supplier's plant and/or on-site, in assembly, start-up, operation, maintenance, and/or repair of the supplied goods.

13.2 Prices charged by the supplier for incidental services, if not included in the contract price for the goods, shall be agreed upon in advance by the parties and shall not exceed the prevailing rates charged to other parties by the supplier for similar services.

14. Spare parts

14.1 As specified in SCC, the supplier may be required to provide any or all of the following materials, notifications, and information pertaining to spare parts manufactured or distributed by the supplier:

- (a) such spare parts as the purchaser may elect to purchase from the supplier, provided that this election shall not relieve the supplier of any warranty obligations under the contract; and
- (b) in the event of termination of production of the spare parts:
 - (i) Advance notification to the purchaser of the pending termination, in sufficient time to permit the purchaser to procure needed requirements; and
 - (ii) following such termination, furnishing at no cost to the purchaser, the blueprints, drawings, and specifications of the spare parts, if requested.

15. Warranty

15.1 The supplier warrants that the goods supplied under the contract are new, unused, of the most recent or current models, and that they incorporate all recent improvements in design and materials unless provided otherwise in the contract. The supplier further warrants that all goods supplied under this contract shall have no defect, arising from design, materials, or workmanship (except when the design and/or material is required by the purchaser's specifications) or from any act or omission of the supplier, that may develop under normal use of the supplied goods in the conditions prevailing in the country of final destination.

15.2 This warranty shall remain valid for twelve (12) months after the goods, or any portion thereof as the case may be, have been delivered to and accepted at the final destination indicated in the contract, or for eighteen (18) months after the date of shipment from the port or place of loading in the source country, whichever period concludes earlier, unless specified otherwise in SCC.

- 15.3 The purchaser shall promptly notify the supplier in writing of any claims arising under this warranty.
- 15.4 Upon receipt of such notice, the supplier shall, within the period specified in SCC and with all reasonable speed, repair or replace the defective goods or parts thereof, without costs to the purchaser.
- 15.5 If the supplier, having been notified, fails to remedy the defect(s) within the period specified in SCC, the purchaser may proceed to take such remedial action as may be necessary, at the supplier's risk and expense and without prejudice to any other rights which the purchaser may have against the supplier under the contract.

16. Payment

- 16.1 The method and conditions of payment to be made to the supplier under this contract shall be specified in SCC.
- 16.2 The supplier shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice accompanied by a copy of the delivery note and upon fulfilment of other obligations stipulated in the contract.
- 16.3 Payments shall be made promptly by the purchaser, but in no case later than thirty (30) days after submission of an invoice or claim by the supplier.
- 16.4 Payment will be made in Rand unless otherwise stipulated in SCC.

17. Prices

- 17.1 Prices charged by the supplier for goods delivered and services performed under the contract shall not vary from the prices quoted by the supplier in his bid, with the exception of any price adjustments authorized in SCC or in the purchaser's request for bid validity extension, as the case may be.

18. Contract amendments

- 18.1 No variation in or modification of the terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by the parties concerned.

19. Assignment

- 19.1 The supplier shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations to perform under the contract, except with the purchaser's prior written consent.

20. Subcontracts

- 20.1 The supplier shall notify the purchaser in writing of all subcontracts awarded under this contract if not already specified in the bid. Such notification, in the original bid or later, shall not relieve the supplier from any liability or obligation under the contract.

21. Delays in the supplier's performance

- 21.1 Delivery of the goods and performance of services shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the time schedule prescribed by the purchaser in the contract.
- 21.2 If at any time during performance of the contract, the supplier or its subcontractor(s) should encounter conditions impeding timely delivery of the goods and performance of services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the supplier's notice, the purchaser shall evaluate the situation and may at his discretion extend the supplier's time for performance, with or without the imposition of penalties, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of contract.
- 21.3 No provision in a contract shall be deemed to prohibit the obtaining of supplies or services from a national department, provincial department, or a local authority.
- 21.4 The right is reserved to procure outside of the contract small quantities or to have minor essential services executed if an emergency arises, the supplier's point of supply is not situated at or near the place where the supplies are required, or the supplier's services are not readily available.
- 21.5 Except as provided under GCC Clause 25, a delay by the supplier in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the supplier liable to the imposition of penalties, pursuant to GCC Clause 22, unless an extension of time is agreed upon pursuant to GCC Clause 21.2 without the application of penalties.
- 21.6 Upon any delay beyond the delivery period in the case of a supplies contract, the purchaser shall, without cancelling the contract, be entitled to purchase supplies of a similar quality and up to the same quantity in substitution of the goods not supplied in conformity with the contract and to return any goods delivered later at the supplier's expense and risk, or to cancel the contract and buy such goods as may be required to complete the contract and without prejudice to his other rights, be entitled to claim damages from the supplier.

22. Penalties

- 22.1 Subject to GCC Clause 25, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or to perform the services within the period(s) specified in the contract, the purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as a penalty, a sum calculated on the delivered price of the delayed goods or unperformed services using the current prime interest rate calculated for each day of the delay until actual delivery or performance. The purchaser may also consider termination of the contract pursuant to GCC Clause 23.

23. Termination for default

- 23.1 The purchaser, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, may terminate this contract in whole or in part:
- (a) if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods within the period(s) specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser pursuant to GCC Clause 21.2;
 - (b) if the Supplier fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract; or
 - (c) if the supplier, in the judgment of the purchaser, has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the contract.
- 23.2 In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods, works or services similar to those undelivered, and the supplier shall be liable to the purchaser for any excess costs for such similar goods, works or services. However, the supplier shall continue performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.
- 23.3 Where the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, the purchaser may decide to impose a restriction penalty on the supplier by prohibiting such supplier from doing business with the public sector for a period not exceeding 10 years.
- 23.4 If a purchaser intends imposing a restriction on a supplier or any person associated with the supplier, the supplier will be allowed a time period of not more than fourteen (14) days to provide reasons why the envisaged restriction should not be imposed. Should the supplier fail to respond within the stipulated fourteen (14) days the purchaser may regard the intended penalty as not objected against and may impose it on the supplier.

- 23.5 Any restriction imposed on any person by the Accounting Officer / Authority will, at the discretion of the Accounting Officer / Authority, also be applicable to any other enterprise or any partner, manager, director or other person who wholly or partly exercises or exercised or may exercise control over the enterprise of the first-mentioned person, and with which enterprise or person the first-mentioned person, is or was in the opinion of the Accounting Officer / Authority actively associated.
- 23.6 If a restriction is imposed, the purchaser must, within five (5) working days of such imposition, furnish the National Treasury, with the following information:
- (i) the name and address of the supplier and / or person restricted by the purchaser;
 - (ii) the date of commencement of the restriction
 - (iii) the period of restriction; and
 - (iv) the reasons for the restriction.

These details will be loaded in the National Treasury's central database of suppliers or persons prohibited from doing business with the public sector.

- 23.7 If a court of law convicts a person of an offence as contemplated in sections 12 or 13 of the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, No. 12 of 2004, the court may also rule that such person's name be endorsed on the Register for Tender Defaulters. When a person's name has been endorsed on the Register, the person will be prohibited from doing business with the public sector for a period not less than five years and not more than 10 years. The National Treasury is empowered to determine the period of restriction and each case will be dealt with on its own merits. According to section 32 of the Act the Register must be open to the public. The Register can be perused on the National Treasury website.

24. Anti- dumping and countervailing duties and rights

- 24.1 When, after the date of bid, provisional payments are required, or anti-dumping or countervailing duties are imposed, or the amount of a provisional payment or anti-dumping or countervailing right is increased in respect of any dumped or subsidized import, the State is not liable for any amount so required or imposed, or for the amount of any such increase. When, after the said date, such a provisional payment is no longer required or any such anti-dumping or countervailing right is abolished, or where the amount of such provisional payment or any such right is reduced, any such favourable difference shall on demand be paid forthwith by the contractor to the State or the State may deduct such amounts from moneys (if any) which may otherwise be due to the contractor in regard to supplies or services which he delivered or rendered, or is to deliver or render in terms of the contract or any other contract or any other amount which may be due to him

25. Force Majeure

- 25.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC Clauses 22 and 23, the supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that his delay in performance or other failure to perform his obligations under the contract is the result of an event of force majeure.
- 25.2 If a force majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the force majeure event.

26. Termination for insolvency

- 26.1 The purchaser may at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier if the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the supplier, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

27. Settlement of Disputes

- 27.1 If any dispute or difference of any kind whatsoever arises between the purchaser and the supplier in connection with or arising out of the contract, the parties shall make every effort to resolve amicably such dispute or difference by mutual consultation.
- 27.2 If, after thirty (30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of his intention to commence with mediation. No mediation in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given to the other party.
- 27.3 Should it not be possible to settle a dispute by means of mediation, it may be settled in a South African court of law.
- 27.4 Mediation proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure specified in the SCC.
- 27.5 Notwithstanding any reference to mediation and/or court proceedings herein,

- (a) the parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the contract unless they otherwise agree; and
- (b) the purchaser shall pay the supplier any monies due the supplier.

28. Limitation of liability

- 28.1 Except in cases of criminal negligence or wilful misconduct, and in the case of infringement pursuant to Clause 6;
- (a) the supplier shall not be liable to the purchaser, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the supplier to pay penalties and/or damages to the purchaser; and
 - (b) the aggregate liability of the supplier to the purchaser, whether under the contract, in tort or otherwise, shall not exceed the total contract price, provided that this limitation shall not apply to the cost of repairing or replacing defective equipment.

29. Governing language

- 29.1 The contract shall be written in English. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract that is exchanged by the parties shall also be written in English.

30. Applicable Law

- 30.1 The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with South African laws, unless otherwise specified in SCC.

31. Notices

- 31.1 Every written acceptance of a bid shall be posted to the supplier concerned by registered or certified mail and any other notice to him shall be posted by ordinary mail to the address furnished in his bid or to the address notified later by him in writing and such posting shall be deemed to be proper service of such notice
- The time mentioned in the contract documents for performing any act after such aforesaid notice has been given, shall be reckoned from the date of posting of such notice.
